

Not Just Another Pretty Face: 25+ Years on Tour

"One of the World's most-respected Performance Artists" - BBC Radio

Janice Perry's retrospective spans not only her international stage career, but our own recent cultural history. One of Vermont's best known and loved natural resources, Perry laughs us through a vibrant performance of cultural icons and events-- from Marilyn Monroe and Reaganomics to George the 1st, Clinton the 1st, a few Gulf Wars, Mapplethorpe's nude photos, Arts Censorship, High Fashion, Erotica, and Andrew Lloyd Webber.

"The OTHER America" - Hamburg Morgenpost

"A cross between Doris Day and a high-velocity rifle" - The Independent, London

"A master at the peak of perfection" - Cologne Anzeiger

"Bizarre and Brainy" - The Village Voice

"Takes you to a space beyond thinking" - ICI Berlin

Perry began international touring in 1982 with her ground-breaking solo performance work. She's acclaimed by critics and fans in England, Netherlands, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, Denmark and South Africa, as well as here in the USA. Perry is a recent Fulbright Scholar and Senior Specialist. Her work has been adapted for television, radio and print in the USA and abroad (NPR, PBS, BBC 2, Channel 4, BBC Radio 3, WDR).
