

Janice Perry

BEING DERRIDA

Who's afraid of Jacques Derrida? Performance artist Janice Perry as you've never seen her before—in a video “dialogue” with the father of Deconstructionist philosophy. Perry's artist talk/installation crosses disciplines with an intimate, interactive, multi-media portrait of the creative process that goes beyond “Performance” and deconstructs Deconstruction itself--with intelligence, humor and charm. “Being Derrida” is a pending semi-finalist for the National Portrait Gallery/ Smithsonian Institution's 2009 Outwin Boochever Portrait Competition.

“Takes you to a space beyond thinking”- Institute for Cultural Inquiry, Berlin

International Day of Fundraising: Support Women Artists Now

FRIDAY APRIL 3, 2009      7 PM

FLEMING MUSEUM BURLINGTON, VERMONT

Sponsored by the Fleming Museum and
The Fund for Women Artists/womenarts.org

Tickets at door: $15 (cash/check only) 802-656-0750

SUPPORT WOMEN ARTISTS NOW!      www.janiceperry.com